

Native Plants in the Credit Valley Watershed

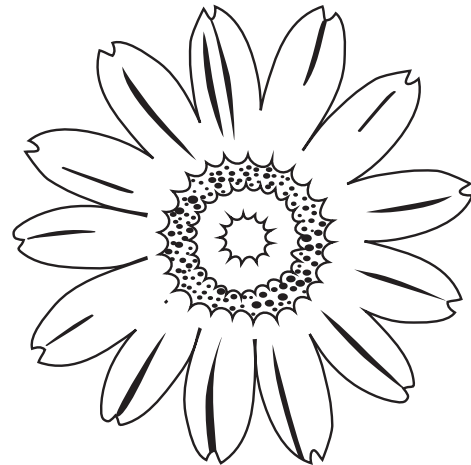

Native plants are those that were growing naturally in the area before humans introduced plants from distant places. They have evolved with our local climate and environment in association with other plants, insects and animals.

Credit Valley Conservation
inspired by nature

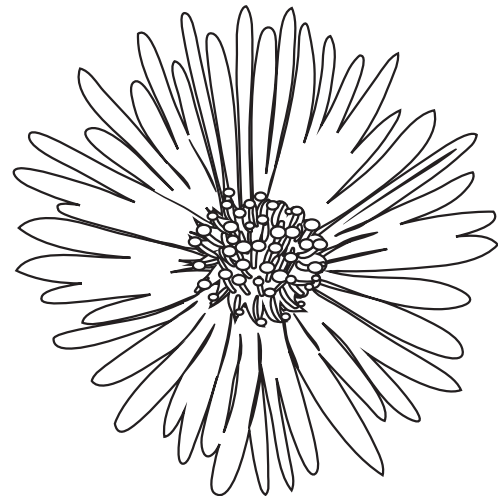

Swamp Milkweed

Black Eyed Susan

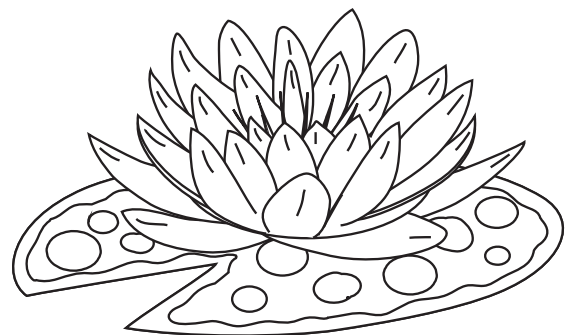

Wild Blue Phlox

New England Aster

Cone Flower

Water Lily